

Process Technician

Number of Posts: 10

Contract Type: Indefinite

Job description

The Process Technician is responsible for a group of machines and manpower, ensuring that they operate in the most efficient, optimized and cost effective manner, as per established quality standards.

Requirements

Applicants for the posts need to satisfy the following requirements:

- A relevant technical certification (ISCED 4) in an engineering related subject
- Fluent in English
- Good knowledge of Microsoft applications
- Be able to work under pressure and to tight deadlines
- Able to work in a team and lead a number of employees as required
- Have good problem solving skills and able to make quick decisions
- Good organisational and communication skills

Training provided

Yes

Any assistance with accommodation/relocation

No

Salary

€386 weekly

Working Hours

3-shift (1 week rotation) –
Morning:	06:00 – 14:00
Afternoon:	14:00 – 22:00
Night:	22:00 – 06:00

How will the interviews be held

The first interview will be held online. Subsequent interviews will be held at our premises.

Any other information

Please submit your CV in English and quote the vacancy title in the covering email.

For any candidates that have qualifications from another EU country, you will need to gain the equivalence of these in Malta. MQRIC accept applications by email on gric.malta@gov.mt. Should MQRIC request clarification or further information regarding an application, it will contact you for such clarification and information. A receipt by email will be issued for all valid submissions. MQRIC expect all of our clients to submit their applications from their personal email directly to us. In the rare event that an applicant has no personal email, a scanned letter of authorization is requested to verify that email being sent by third user on their behalf is under authorization. More information can be found at this link <https://ncfhe.gov.mt/en/services/Pages/All%20Services/mqric.aspx>.